

GALLATIN RIVER LODGE®

BOZEMAN MONTANA

Welcome to the Gallatin River Lodge

At Gallatin River Lodge, our wine program is built on a simple belief: there are only opportunities to discover what brings you joy. That philosophy, paired with a deep respect for craftsmanship and terroir, has earned us the honor of Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for two consecutive years.

Our list reflects both the serenity of our surroundings and the global diversity of winemaking. Each selection is chosen for its authenticity and its ability to express the climate, culture, and character of the vineyard it comes from. From mineral-driven whites of Europe to expressive reds from California and beyond, these wines are crafted by producers who share our commitment to quality and intention.

We are especially proud to introduce our current by-the-glass feature highlighting the wines of Juan Gil from Spain. A benchmark producer in Jumilla and beyond, the Gil family has played a pivotal role in elevating the global perception of Spanish wines. They champion old-vine Monastrell, sustainable practices, and exceptional value without compromising quality. Their wines are both rooted in tradition and reflective of modern precision, offering a compelling expression of Spain's rich winemaking heritage.

Paired with our elevated cuisine, each glass and bottle is an invitation to explore. Whether you follow classic pairings or chart your own course, we encourage you to trust your palate, stay curious, and enjoy the experience as much as the wine itself.

Here's to great wine, great food, and the freedom to enjoy them your way.

Cheers!

-Nicholas Bromund, Resident Sommelier

These wines are off the traditional "beaten path", but we wanted to elevate these areas and the fine wines they are producing. The historical impact of wine making in these parts of the world have influenced the greats... we believe that small and potentially unknown does not equate to insignificant.
